

Frauenbewegungen und Wissensformationen – politische und epistemische Praktiken
Women's Movements and Formations of Knowledge – Political and Epistemic Practices

(OeZG Special Issue, eds.: Johanna Gehmacher and Dietlind Hüchtker)

Workshop 16 June '23

12h-12h50 Introductions

(12h50-13h break)

13h-14h

Transnational meetings and new forms of knowledge production about women in the 1970s

Paula Lucia Aguilar: Towards a transnational feminist expertise. Social Sciences research meetings during 1970s

Claudia Kraft: Wenig Phantasie, kaum Echo in Mexiko-Stadt, 1975: Zur De- und Rekonstruktion von Frauenrechten im globalen Kontext (Little imagination, hardly any echo in Mexico City, 1975: On the de- and reconstruction of women's rights in a global context)

14h-15h

Bibliographies, libraries and the foundation of new documentation projects

Iwona Dadej: Frauenpolitische akademische Praktiken a la polacca. Über epistemisches Wissen und neuen Narrative im multiethnischen Lemberg um 1900. (Women's political academic practices a la polacca. On epistemic knowledge and new narratives in multi-ethnic Lviv around 1900)

Barbara Schnalzger: „Wir sind in unserer wissenschaftlichen Arbeit auf die Existenz einer Bibliothek angewiesen“ - Die ostdeutsche Frauenbibliothek MONALiesA zwischen Bewegung und Wissenschaft ("We depend on the existence of a library for our scientific work" - The East German Women's Library MONALiesA between Movement and Science)

(15h-15h30 break)

15h30-16h30

Body knowledge and experience

Kassandra Hammel: „Let's pool any information we discover and publish it in Spare Rib.“ - Feministische Zeitschriften als Wissensmultiplikatorinnen (Feminist journals as knowledge multipliers)

Evangelia Chordaki: The collective and historical self: Vulnerable epistemologies, affective politics, and intergenerational herstories

16h30-17h30

Transnational knowledge transfer on legal systems and women's rights

Juho Korhonen: Women's Suffrage in the Periphery of the Russian Empire: Historical and Social Scientific Reasoning for and against Women's Political Participation in the Grand Duchy of Finland and Globally, 1890s – 1910s

Marion Röwekamp: Rechtsvergleich, Rechtstransfer und die Formulierung von internationalem Recht in der transnationalen Frauenbewegung (Comparative law, transfer of law and the formulation of international law in the transnational women's movement)

(17h30-18h break)

18h-19h Conclusions